

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Where Communication & Connectivity Meet

STAYING IN TOUCH & GETTING THINGS DONE

In-office. Remote. Hybrid. Multiple locations. No matter where and how your work gets done, dependable communication matters more than ever.

JMARK's telecommunications services are designed to keep your people in touch—with you, your network, each other, and your customers. This means consistent access to the necessary resources to solve problems, get work done, create opportunities, and grow your business.

JMARK gives you strong connections that transcend the wires, switches, and circuits to foster teamwork, increase efficiency, and boost productivity.

1

SCALABLE

As you grow, your phone systems do too.

2

STABLE

Customers and staff can stay in contact.

3

PREDICTABLE

A reliable foundation for all your work.

4

ADAPTABLE

Agile systems for dynamic organizations.

THE POWER OF PARTNERSHIP

JMARK has working relationships with all the leading internet and phone providers. We leverage this access to find you the right service at the best price point for your needs. We also manage vendors from a position of priority in the event of an escalation so you don't experience unnecessary pain.

But what ultimately sets us apart from the basic telecom resellers is our IT expertise. We understand your technology from end to end, including the integrations necessary to keep everything working together and ensure that your systems remain up to date without interrupting your workday.

Our telecommunications team can help with:

- Phones and hardware
- Switches
- Circuits
- Fiber
- Direct internet connections
- Wide Area Networks (WAN)
- Software-defined wide area networks (SD-WAN)
- Unified communications as a service (UCaaS)
- Contact center as a service (CCaaS)
- Connecting workers to resources
- Connecting employees to your core systems and platforms
- Connecting to cloud applications
- And more
